Notes:

1. Entering students will be given a placement test in mathematics. Test results will be used in selecting the appropriate starting course which may be at a higher or lower level.
2. To be selected from the University Core Curriculum. Of the 21 hours shown, 3 must be from humanities, 3 must be from visual and performing arts, 3 from social and behavioral sciences, 6 from U.S. history, 6 from POLS 206 and 207, and 6 from international and cultural diversity. The international and cultural diversity requirement may be met by courses satisfying the visual and performing arts, social and behavioral sciences, and the political science and history requirements if they are also on the approved list of international and cultural diversity courses.
3. ENTC 216 can be substituted for ENTC 215.
4. Must be approved by an advisor. ENTC 489 Directed Studies is not for general use as a technical elective.
